

This infographic aims to show the usage of mathematics in architecture. By the typical example of the leaning tower of Pisa, the importance of maths is shown. It helps us figure out its maximum tilt of standing so that the risk level can be estimated, to prevent the exposure to its collapse.