

This infographic uses progress rings and different shapes (circles and squares) to guide readers through all the steps required to be able to discover how pi is used to relate the height of the pyramid and pyramid's base perimeter. Thereby demonstrating how advanced mathematics was applied by ancient civilizations in their architecture.