

Brief of Work

This poem depicts the speaker's grandmother through describing her speech, thought, actions and look. The heirloom, the pair of scissors, was passed down across generations to signify the affectionate relationship between the grandmother and the speaker. Therefore, I illustrated the scene to portray the love and care the grandmother had for her granddaughter and the inheritance across generations in the family.