

Brief of Work

The pair of scissors creates a mirror-like reflection of both the grandmother and her granddaughter, signifying that aging is inevitable in our life. The open scissors also represent the separation between the grandmother and the modern society, as the grandmother has increasingly felt that she was misunderstood and isolated from the modern world of advancement. However, in an ironic way, the pair of scissors also symbolises heritage and connection.