Swim On

Tides they can't shake,
Against the waves they break,
Swim on, without a plan.

Into the open,

Up and Up again,

Time to try again.

It's an upstream battle,

Endless turmoil,
Trials and Tribulations.
They'll get through it though,
And So will you.

You are the captain of your sails,
So walk on, without a plan,
You will prevail,
You will rise again.

Swim on — there is more,
Walk on — the path will be clearer.
