

Selected Value: National Identity

Bamboo Bridges

Five thousand years of sunrise and dye-red.

Lives the black and white mascot.

Ambassador of peace and culture in time and space.

Arriving at the new land.

As the bridge between Hong Kong and the motherland.

Munching on bamboo

Attracting the hullabaloo.

Relaxing and reclining in this sanctuary.

Taking pride in representing this country.

Future takes its shape.

One soil, two shores, one destiny agape.
