

Selected Value: Empathy

Empathy in the Sand

In twilight's glow, where shadows blend.
Three meerkats gather, their hearts extend.
In gentle play, they share their space,
Whispers of kindness in their embrace.

With soft touches, they comfort and care,
A family bond, beyond compare.
Rolling together, in laughter they find,
The strength of connection, hearts intertwined.

One lifts another, in joy and in strife,
A dance of compassion, the essence of life,
So let us learn from their tender way,
To show empathy, come what may.
