

Selected Value: Unity, Commitment

Feathers of Lifelong Love

Sacred vows we make, to the one and only,
Cherishing each other, we'll never be lonely.
Always by your side, together forever,
Relationship until the end – 'Apart? Never!'
Loyalty abounds, even death won't set us apart.
Entwined by love, pledges soar in our hearts.
Together preening each other's feathers, through life's joy and tears,
Mutually devoted, we take turns caring for our daughters.
Amidst the trees, the male hunts fearlessly,
Committed to this home, the female gazes longingly.
Always holding on to the divine promise, committed as we age,
Welcoming each day, with love that turns the new page!
