

Perseverance

Swim On

Cascade into the cacophony,
Of survival between our fins.

Stay Strong.

For currents,
Are bound to overpower ————— your hand, too slippery to grasp.
Even if we dissipate amongst the crowd ——— ——— Promise me,
You'll keep swimming on.

And someday,

I'll meet you somewhere ——— ——— A place where light will shower

And someday,

We shall dance ————— Freely disco amongst the scintillating rays,
Celebrating our final victory

To swim,

is to live.

In the blue blossom

We Thrive
