

Perseverance

Wings of Perseverance

Pushing through deep waves, it will not yield,
Enduring cold, where silent shadows seal.
Resolute heart, no matter how far or hard,
Steadfast it swims, and never drops its guard.
Each beat defies the tide that pulls it back,
Valiant and strong, it stays firmly on track.
Even when darkness wraps the sea around,
Refusing to surrender, it holds its ground.
Against all doubts, its spirit still remains,
Never turning back, through storms and rains.
Courage unbroken, purpose clear and bright,
Endurance lights its path through endless nights.
