

Filial Piety

Family Watch

As meerkats guard their kin with care,
And stand alert to warm children,
So children too should watch and stay,
To shield their family members,
Come what may.
The young look up,
The old look down,
In circles of love,
The world goes round.
What parents gave in days gone by,
Returns through love that will not die.