

Filial Piety

A Son's Promise

Cool waters cradle hues that shine bright,
Loyalty thrives in the depths of the night.
Oft under her watch, their bond strong and rare,
With great respect for his mother, he follows her here and there.
Nurturing and noble, she is his teacher and guide.
Finding his balance, he gathers his strength in the currents they ride.
In every wave, they dance and align.
So now that he's grown,
He vows to protect, as she did in kind.
